

The Palais Royal Summer Girl "Opening"

To-morrow, Monday, March 7.

With the completion of the importations of Wash Dress Goods, Embroideries, Laces, and Accessories, comes this "Opening"—the time when the embryo Summer Girl finds the choicest materials for her gowns—and at a less cost than if she delayed a selection.

The Practical Souvenirs.

This page only gives a few hints—to-morrow's visitors will experience many greater surprises. The explanation is that the chiefs of the various departments are only just from New York, and all the news cannot get into to-day's papers.

FREE---McCALL'S BAZAAR OF FASHIONS.

McCall Pattern, No. 3257, price, 15c, is responsible for the dress pictured here. Note the prices of Materials.

THIS very attractive model, which is suited to soft, pliable fabrics, is illustrated in pale lavender mull, with cream-white all-over lace and band trimming. The waist, which is in the newest style, has the body and short sleeves cut in one and is mounted on a body lining, which is faced in yoke effect, and to which the long sleeves are attached. The style of the entire gown is simple and graceful in the extreme, permitting innumerable opportunities for individual modes of trimming. The skirt is shaped by five gores and has a deep gathered flounce. It may be cut in short sweep or walking length. Other fabrics adapted to this model are silk cashmere, cashmere, poplin, messaline, crepe meteor, organdie and lawn. The pattern can be had in six sizes, from 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 9 1/2 yards of material 27 inches wide, 7 1/2 yards 36 inches wide, 5 1/2 yards 44 inches wide, or 4 1/2 yards 54 inches wide. The width around the bottom of the skirt is 3 1/2 yards.

The Hat, $2.25 to $3.00.

The Millinery Chief, who lately returned from New York, reports the hat pictured here as the very latest. It's of black hair, here at $2.25, $2.50, and $3.00.

The Ostrich Plumes used for trimming are to be quoted at complimentary prices to-morrow, as follows: $2.25 instead of $3.50, $3.75 instead of $4.25, $5.50 instead of $7.50.

For latest moment news of millinery, interview Miss Dell, in the "French Room," on second floor.

It should be noted that the "Opening" Souvenirs include both the figured and striped white madras, as well as the lawns in colors, at 9c instead of 12 1/2c yard. The list below includes mention of many miles of new materials displayed on second floor.

Maj. J. A. Gaston, First United States Cavalry, arrived here on Wednesday from San Francisco, where he is on duty, and has been at the Army and Navy Club.

GEORGETOWN.

The wedding Thursday of Miss Katherine Hoover and Mr. Haag was a very pretty affair. The bride wore an exquisite white satin gown graped with white chiffon and caught with pearl trimming. The veil was held in place with orange blossoms. Her sister, Miss Isabel Hoover, who was maid of honor, wore a light blue satin, cut low at the neck and trimmed with chiffon. The short sleeves were of tucked chiffon with

MISS COULTER

Says dancing is healthy, it is good for old and young—makes them light and graceful on their feet. More than three thousand people, and some of the most graceful dancers of this city, have been taught by Miss Coulter. Now, if you don't dance you are a back number. Be a game sport, come to the front, Miss Coulter will teach you to dance in a few lessons at her private studio.

touches of lace. The gown was trimmed with bands of embroidered chiffon. Miss Hoover carried pink roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Kathryn Powell and Miss Werthimer, were gowned in pink crepe elaborately trimmed in embroidered chiffon. The marriage took place at the residence of Mrs. Haag's aunt, Mrs. Powell, in Thirty-first street, Rev. Mr. Blake, of Christ Church, officiating. Mrs. Haag is a daughter of the late John B. Hoover, constructor in the United States navy. It was he who had charge of the construction of the original battle ship Maine. Mr. Haag was for a time in the Navy Department designing force, but at present is with the Newport News works, where he holds a responsible position in the same capacity. The couple are to visit relatives in New York after a trip South. Later they will go to their home, "Driftwood," outside of Old Point. The out-of-town guests were Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Laws, of Annapolis; Miss Helen Haag, of New York; Miss Teresa Makened, of Philadelphia; Miss Teresa Werthimer, of Newport News; Miss Mary White, of Philadelphia; Mr. Harry Scott, of New York, and Mr. S. Culyer Jenkins, of Hampton. Mr. Jenkins, who was the best man, is one of the most popular men of Hampton and is widely known in a social way, particularly as commodore of the Virginia Yacht Club.

The friends of Mr. Richard Gilliam were delightedly entertained at his residence in Thirty-first street to celebrate the passage of three score years of his life. He was the recipient of many gifts.
